

Running for my life

Robin Djusberg

Running out of time, running out of options, running out of ways to stay alive Running out of luck, running out of choices, running out of ways to say goodbye

But you'll never see me lose my faith, you'll never see me loose myself I'm still here,
 Still running, still running, running for my life

Running mile by mile, running across borders, Running for a chance to make a change Running for a cause, running for your enlightenment, running for a chance to make you believe

But you'll never see me lose my faith,
 you'll never see me lose this race I'm still here,
 Still running, still running, running for my life
 For my life
 Coz you'll never see me lose this game,
 You need not yet prepare my grave, I'm still here,
 Still running, still running, running for my life
