

Devil on my shoulder

Robin Djusberg

Em G
There's a devil on my shoulder. A whisper in the night
Am B7 Em
Everything is all right, there's no need to feel ashamed
Em D/F# G
There's a devil on my shoulder, I can feel each breath against my neck,
Am B7 Em
Wherever I turn. And I'm lying to myself, as I burn

Am C B7 Em
Say juror can't you see? The man behind my actions was not me
Am C B7 Em
There's a constant struggle in my head, until the devil on my shoulder is dead.

There's a devil on my shoulder, He will justify my wrongs with a word of poison in my ear; there's no need to feel ashamed

There's a devil on my shoulder, as we speak, There's a devil on my shoulder I can't hear what you say with this echo in my head, of whatever he said

Say jury can't you see? The man behind the picture was not me, a constant battle in my head, until the devil on my shoulder is dead.

Solo

And so I got up from the floor, with what's left I ran through the door,
No more, no more, no more, I can't have this anymore

But there's still a smile on that devil face, You'll come back to me one day he says, There's no way to resist, the chains on your wrists

Jurors can't you see? all I ever wanted was to be set free
But I could never be freed you see,
Because the devil on my shoulder is me
Because the devil on my shoulder is me
Because the devil on my shoulder is me
